INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Clarita-Olney Water Company, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the business-type activities of the Clarita-Olney Water Company, Inc., as of and for the year ended June 30, 2013, and the related notes to the financial statements, which collectively comprise the Clarita-Olney Water Company, Inc.'s basic financial statements as listed in the table of contents.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express opinions on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinions.

Opinions

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the respective financial position of the business-type activities of the Clarita-Olney Water Company, Inc. as of June 30, 2013, and the respective changes in financial position and, where applicable, cash flows thereof for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Other Matters

Required Supplementary Information

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require that the management's discussion and analysis on pages 3 through 5 be presented to supplement the basic financial statements. Such information, although not a part of the basic financial statements, is required by the Governmental Accounting Standards Board, who considers it to be an essential part of financial reporting for placing the basic financial statements in an appropriate operational, economic, or historical context. We have applied certain limited procedures to the required supplementary information in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, which consisted of inquiries of management about the methods of preparing the information and comparing the information for consistency with management's responses to our inquiries, the basic financial statements, and other knowledge we obtained during our audit of the basic financial statements. We do not express an opinion or provide any assurance on the information because the limited procedures do not provide us with sufficient evidence to express an opinion or provide any assurance.

Other Reporting Required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated October 22, 2013 on our consideration of the Clarita-Olney Water Company, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the Clarita-Olney Water Company, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

June 30, 2013

Unaudited

Our discussion and analysis of the financial performance of the Clarita-Olney Water Co., Inc. provides an overview of the Corporation's financial activities for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2013. Please read it in conjunction with the Corporation's financial statements, which begin on page 6.

USING THIS ANNUAL REPORT

This annual report consists of a series of financial statements. The Statement of Net Position and the Statement of Revenues, Expenses and Changes in Fund Net Position (on pages 6 and 7) provide information about the activities of the Corporation for the year ended June 30, 2013. The statement of cash flows on page 8 provides information related to cash received and expended by the corporation.

Reporting the Corporation as a Whole

Our analysis of the Corporation as a whole begins on page 4. One of the most important questions asked about the Corporation's finances is, "Is the Corporation as a whole better off or worse off as a result of the year's activities?" The Statement of Net Position and the Statement of Revenues, Expenses and Changes in Fund Net Position report information about the Corporation as a whole and about its activities in a way that helps answer this question. These statements include all assets and liabilities using the accrual basis of accounting, which is similar to the accounting used by most private-sector companies. All of the current year's revenues and expenses are taken into account regardless of when cash is received or paid.

These two statements report the Corporation's net position and changes therein. You can think of the Corporation's net position – the difference between assets and liabilities – as one way to measure the Corporation's financial health, or financial position. Over time, increases or decreases in the Corporation's net position are one indicator of whether its financial health is improving or deteriorating. You will need to consider other non-financial factors, however, such as changes in the Corporation's long-term debt and the condition of the Corporation's water distribution system, to assess the overall health of the Corporation.

In the Statement of Net Position and the Statement of Revenues, Expenses and Changes in Fund Net Position, the Corporation performs one type of activity:

- Business-Type Activities – The Corporation charges a fee to customers to help it cover all or most of the cost of the service it provides. The Corporation's water system is reported here.

Reporting the Corporation's Most Significant Funds

Our analysis of the Corporation's major fund begins on page 4. The Corporation utilizes one type of fund.

- Proprietary Funds – When the Corporation charges customers for the services it provides, these services are generally reported in proprietary funds.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING AND ON COMPLIANCE AND OTHER MATTERS BASED ON AN AUDIT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS PERFORMED IN ACCORDANCE WITH GOVERNMENT AUDITING STANDARDS

To the Board of Directors
Clarita-Olney Water Company, Inc.

We have audited the financial statements of the business-type activities of Clarita-Olney Water Company, Inc. as of and for the year ended June 30, 2013, which collectively comprise Clarita-Olney Water Company, Inc.'s basic financial statements and have issued our report thereon dated October 22, 2013. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States of America.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit, we considered Clarita-Olney Water Company, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Clarita-Olney Water Company, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of Clarita-Olney Water Company, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect and correct misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis.

Our consideration of internal control over financial reporting was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting that might be deficiencies, significant deficiencies, or material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

However, we identified certain deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting, described in the accompanying schedule of findings and responses as item 06-1 and 07-1 that we consider to be a significant deficiency in internal control over financial reporting. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether Clarita-Olney Water Company, Inc.'s financial statements are free of material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Clarita-Olney Water Company, Inc.'s Response to Findings

The organization's response to the findings identified in our audit is described in the accompanying schedule of findings and responses. Clarita-Olney Water Company, Inc.'s response was not subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and, accordingly, we express no opinion on it.

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance with applicable provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and the results of our testing, and to provide an opinion on Clarita-Olney Water Company, Inc.'s compliance but not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of Clarita-Olney Water Company, Inc.'s internal control over compliance. This report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering Clarita-Olney Water Company, Inc.'s compliance and its internal control over compliance. Accordingly, this report is not suitable for any other purpose.

STATUS OF PRIOR AUDIT FINDINGS

June 30, 2013

06-1 SEGREGATION OF DUTIES

Condition: Due to the limited number of personnel involved in the operating of the fiscal office, most of those aspects of internal accounting control, which rely upon an adequate segregation of duties are, for all practical purposes, missing in the organization. However, we recognize that the organization's administration is not large enough to make the employment of additional persons, for the purpose of segregating duties, practical from a cost-benefit standpoint.

Current Status: See current audit finding 06-1.

07-1 INEFFECTIVE CONTROLS OVER SELECTION AND APPLICATION OF GENERALLY ACCEPTED ACCOUNTING PRINCIPALS

Condition: Significant control deficiencies exist which adversely affect the organization's ability to initiate, authorize, record, process and report financial data reliably in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Recurring adjustments are required to be made to the financial statements which are compiled by auditors. Cash receipts and cash disbursements journals are not maintained by the organization. In addition, financial statements are not originated and maintained by the organization.

Current Status: The organization now maintains a cash receipts/disbursements ledger, however, ineffective controls still exist. See current audit finding 07-1.
